

WHERE THE EXPERIENCE IS ELEVATED!

Spirit Solutions is the latest cheer and dance competition company to join M Events.

September 1st, 2020 – M Events announces the acquisition of Spirit Solutions, a competitive cheer and dance competition company. Making it the third competition company for M Events. With Spirit Solutions coming under the M Events family of brands, all Spirit Solutions competitions are now qualifying bid events to The ONE Finals!

M Events is proud to add Spirit Solutions to their family of brands, along with the already successful acquisitions of Cheer Derby and GMCE. Brian Shirley, President of M Events states that “Jessica has built an incredible reputation over the years and I know that Spirit Solutions will fit right in line with our values and commitment to our customers.”

“There are many advantages to being part of something bigger. I’m looking forward to my new position as Director of Operations for M Events and I will continue to be the main point of contact for Spirit Solutions. This is an exciting opportunity and I’m determined to make this transition seamless for our customers,” says Jessica Moore.

With this acquisition, M Events is proud to say that with our growing family of brands we will make sure that each program is fully prepared and welcomed for each unique event. Armed with personal experience in the industry, the members of each team know how to exceed the cheerleading and dance standards.
